Come and hear from about paths to training and employment from representatives of the school, local employers and Scotland's national skills agency: Skills Development Scotland.

The evening will concentrate on opportunities available for those looking to pursue routes to a career other than the purely academic options, including the current portfolio of apprenticeship programmes. These programmes incorporate education elements ranging from school-level Foundation Apprenticeships, through to Masters-level university course via Higher/Advanced Apprenticeships.

The evening will start with presentations from some invited speakers, including SSE and the Moness Resort, followed by a refreshment break and then a Question & Answer session.
